What is the Agrabah? Where is it?

---

Well, it is located near the Jordan River in the Radi Rum Desert. The city was founded by a man named Hamed, an ancestor of the Sultan and Jasmine. Agrabah is described as "a city of mystery, of enchantment", and as such, has had numerous encounters with the fantastical throughout its existence. It is a magical, colossal palace with such wonder and conundrum through the journey of this castle.

Why is it so famous?

That is not a question with a single answer! People say that is amusing by its unknown powers and others love how it is so mysterious. Schools come to this palace for residential trips to see the once-in-a-lifetime experience. Parents and teachers say that it is a fabulous source to improve children's imaginations' instead of spending hours in front of a television, phone or playing games. This was indeed true as it has been scientifically proven that 93% of children's imaginations have been improved by a high amount and the high quality of work they were presenting to their teachers were increasing by a significant amount.

Is it safe?

Of course it is! This magical palace was created to be mysterious and safe for everybody! You don't even need to worry about dehydration when you are travelling to it or being inside it, as the temperature is on average over 25 degrees, there are stores everywhere to buy a fresh bottle of nice, cold water to keep yourself cool! Speaking of temperature wise, that leads us to the next question!

How is the temperature?

On average, it goes up to over 23 degrees and sometimes, rarely though, it goes around 26-29 degrees. Make sure to bring plenty of water as inside the palace, the temperature goes to 13-16 degrees but don't worry, there are stores to buy cold, cool bottles of water, even inside and some stores even sell sun cream and ice-cream to cool you down. Make sure you use sun cream before travelling to Agrabah and rub it constantly to be safe from sunburn!

Is it fun?

Of course! There is a playroom in several rooms for your children to play, there is a production of the movie Aladdin (tickets, food and drinks are free throughout the production), your able to play BINGO with tickets for only 75p, and a pop quiz about the movie Aladdin, the winner earns £655! (tickets only for 85p). Not only that there are these sources of entertainment listed above, but also there is tons of more joy, fun and mystery by the enchantments in this palace.

When does it open and close?

Well, there is a time-table below this to show at what time does it open and more:
