

Aladdin

As I entered the cave of wonders with my magical carpet and pet monkey Abu, the smell of dampness filled my nose. I left Abu and carpet on a large rock as I slowly and carefully jumped down, hopping from rock to rock then stair to stair, as I reached the top I turned around to see my monkey getting closer and closer to an orange stone that lay in the hands of a colossal beast...

I grabbed the lamp and quickly ran down the stairs as lava filled the cave. Abu-terrified and guilty- ran to me dodging the lava that was as hot as fire... We made our way to carpet and jumped on it. We flew over the rocks until we reached an opening where a man stood... He grabbed the lamp off me, but little did he know my partner in crime would soon save it... Abu bit into the man's arm leaving him teeth marks and also causing him to drop the lamp straight into my arms...

We were safe at last...
