

THE DAILY PROPHET NEWSPAPER

Breaking news, at approximately 3:30pm today Lord Voldemort ( otherwise known as Tom Riddle ) was arrested on suspicion of opening the Chamber Of Secrets.

A staff member named Hagrid was the one that had seen Riddle next to the door and caught him while it was wide open. He was peering inside to see if anything suspicious was hiding in there as there was a rumor for periods of time ( over 50 years ago ) when something dreadful and appalling had happened. The Chamber Of Secrets was opened and to this day it has surprisingly re-opened. We hear now from a student from the school of witchcraft and wizardry, Harry Potter.

“I think it is shocking that innocent people are being accused for opening the Chamber when it was really Voldemort. Disbelief silenced the air when all of the pupils at Hogwarts heard about the Chamber Of Secrets and now that it has been defeated because of Tom Riddle opening it and now everyone does not have to panic nor worry anymore about the chamber, which is a good sign for myself, as suspicion and mystery is key to me as I ponder an awful lot of the time.”

We also hear from Hagrid - one of Harry's good friends - who said that he was the one that witnessed Lord Voldemort and that he was the one who reported it straight away to all of the members of staff, which of those that include: Professor Dumbledore, Professor Snape, Professor McGonagall and Gilderoy Lockhart. This is very peculiar as Hagrid was actually one of the targeted suspects that most people thought was guilty himself of the said offence.

This is what he declared. "Now, I saw Voldemort opening the chamber peering in seeking for gold, diamonds and expensive jewellery. He hadn't been having the greatest success so without hesitancy, he crept inside. This was where I saw him!!! It was very late at night and I was just walking back to my Gryffindor common room but when I saw Riddle I changed direction immediately and alerted the staff and teachers almost in a flash. Voldemort was caught red-handed!"

Anyway, that is the actual reality of how Tom Riddle was caught and how he was suspended from all duties and how he was taken to prison for almost the rest of his life and will indeed be extremely fortunate if he were to be released.

Report written by: Josef Edwards